Cato, N.Y.

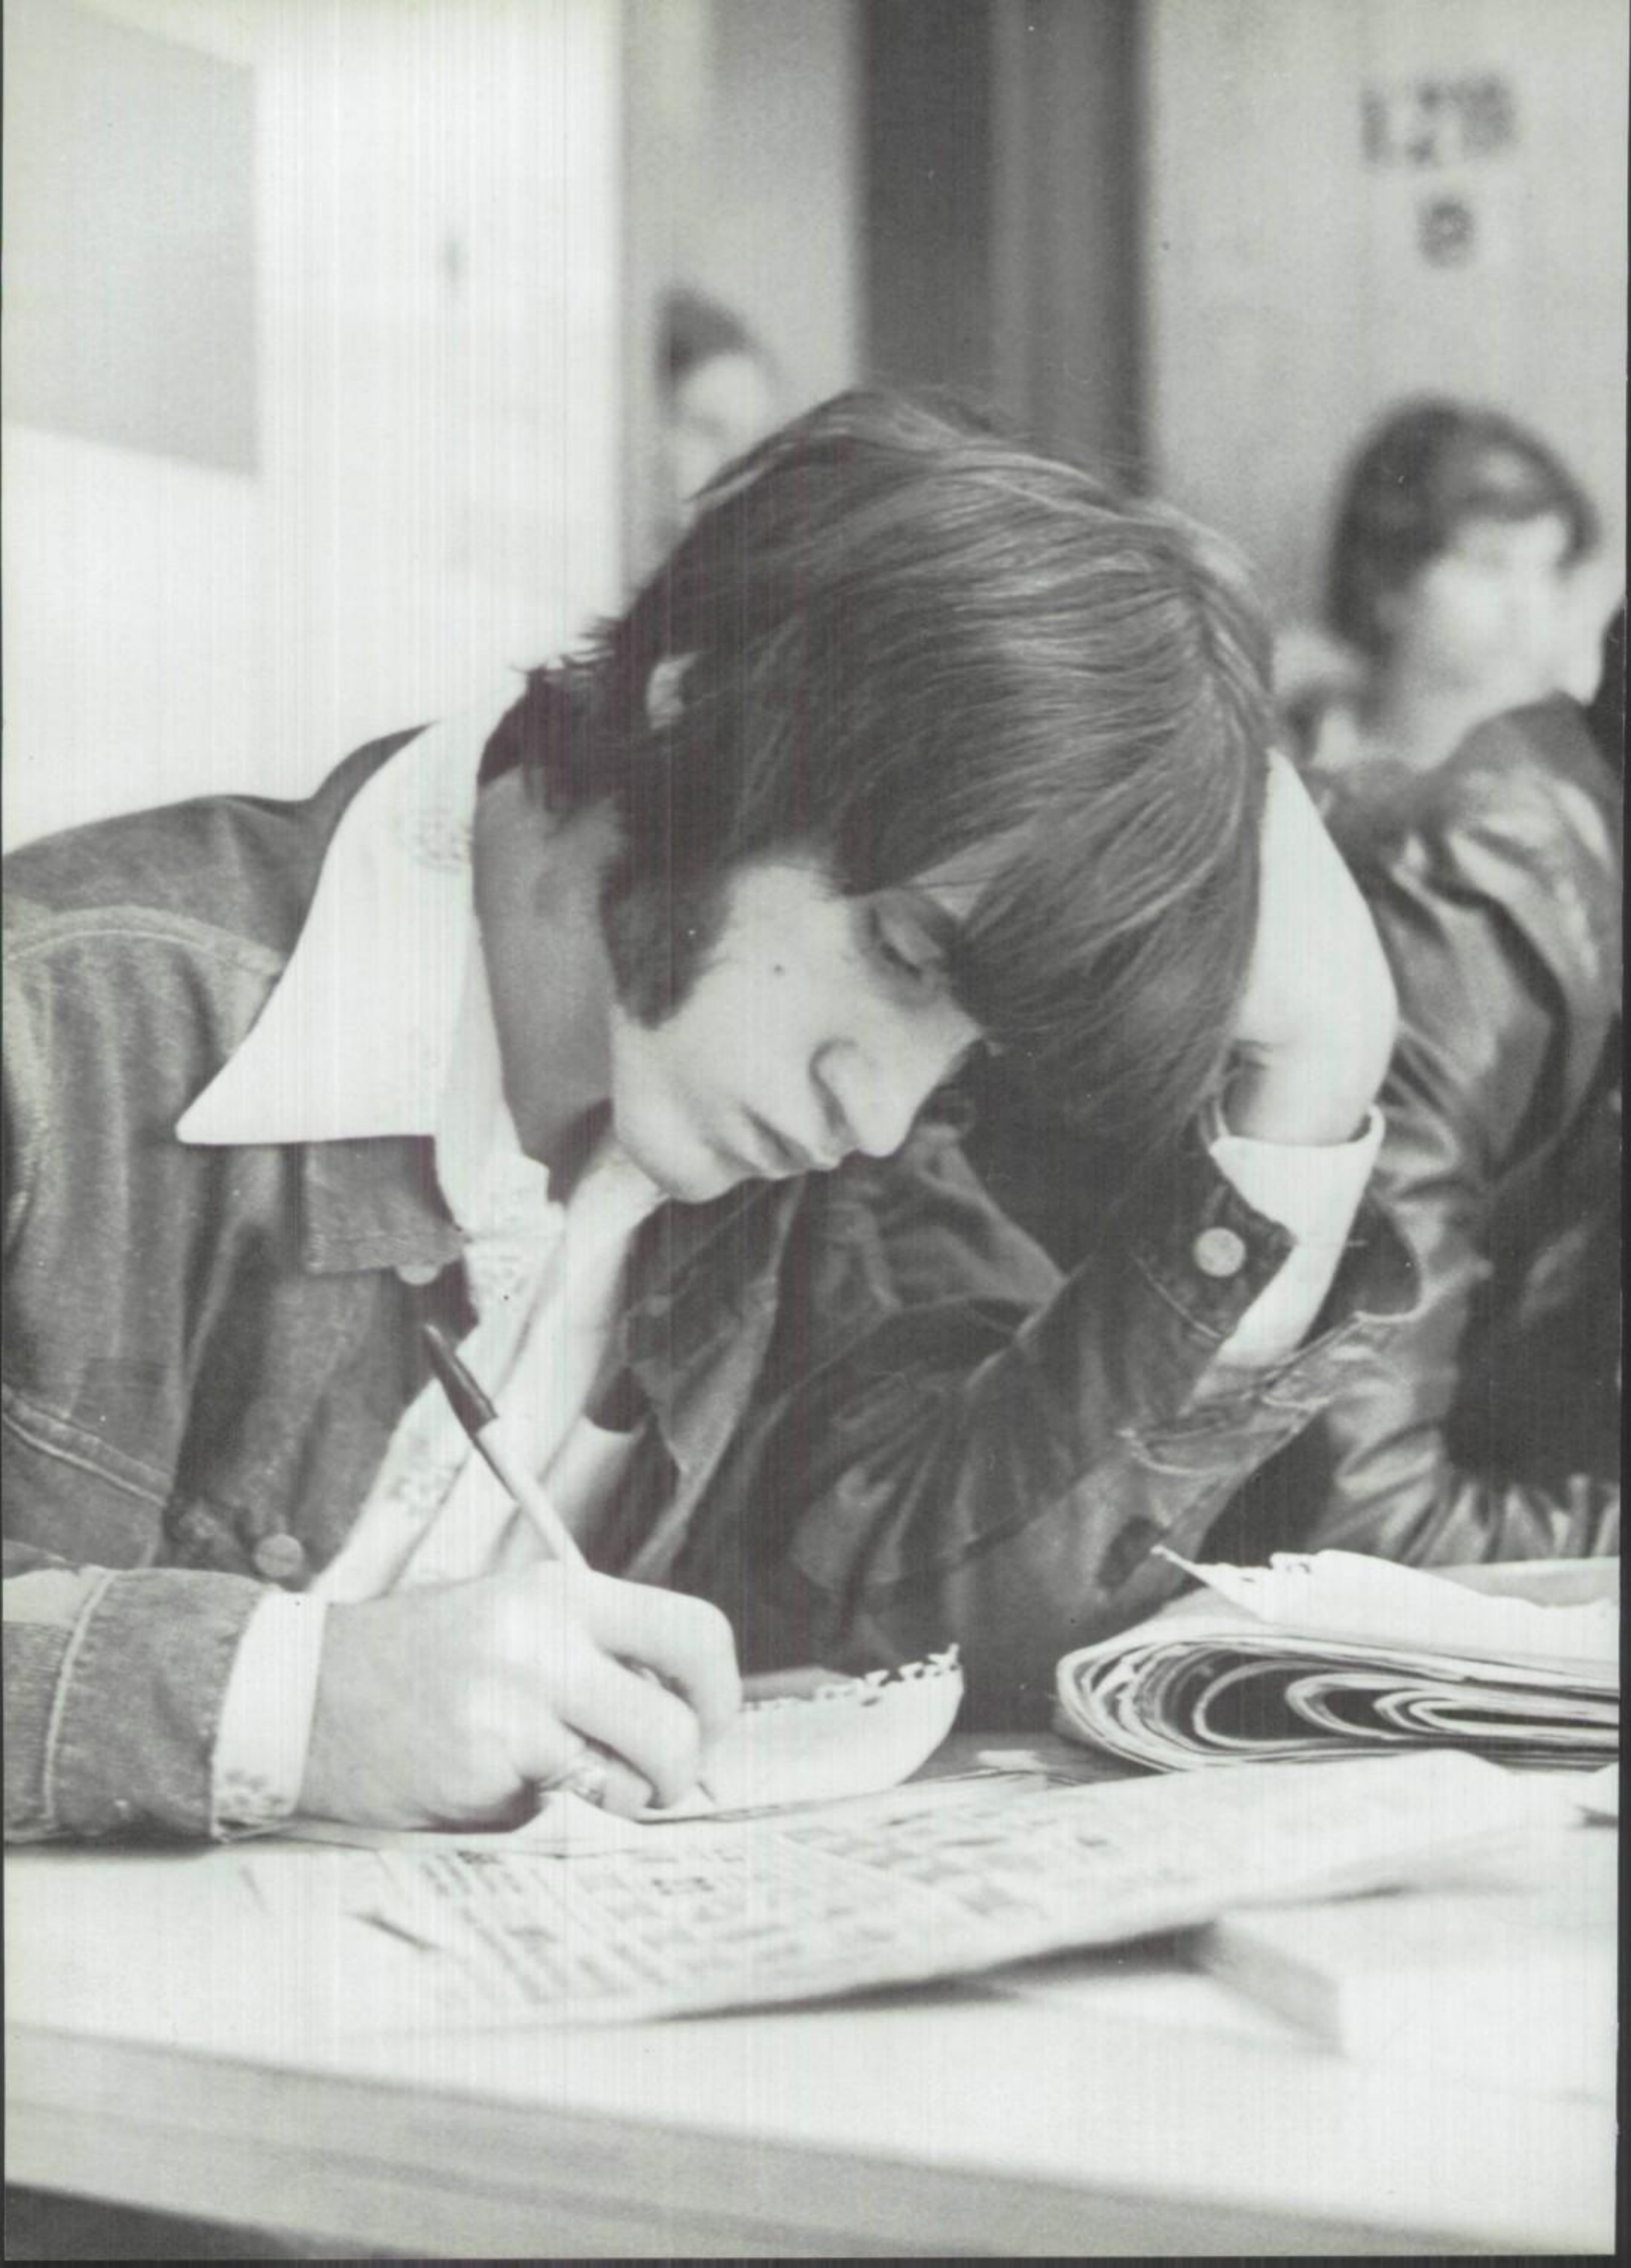

Remember . . .

Because of her
cheerful smile, sunny personality,
and friendly face,
Anne Killough has shown us that Cato-Meridian High School is more than just a place to learn . . .
it is a place of learning to love and care.

The Class of 1976 dedicates this yearbook to

MONY ART SHOW

Janet Woods, wine set--Gold Key, Blue Ribbon

Gold Keys: Cheryl Keysor, Aligator pot; David Bishop, water color

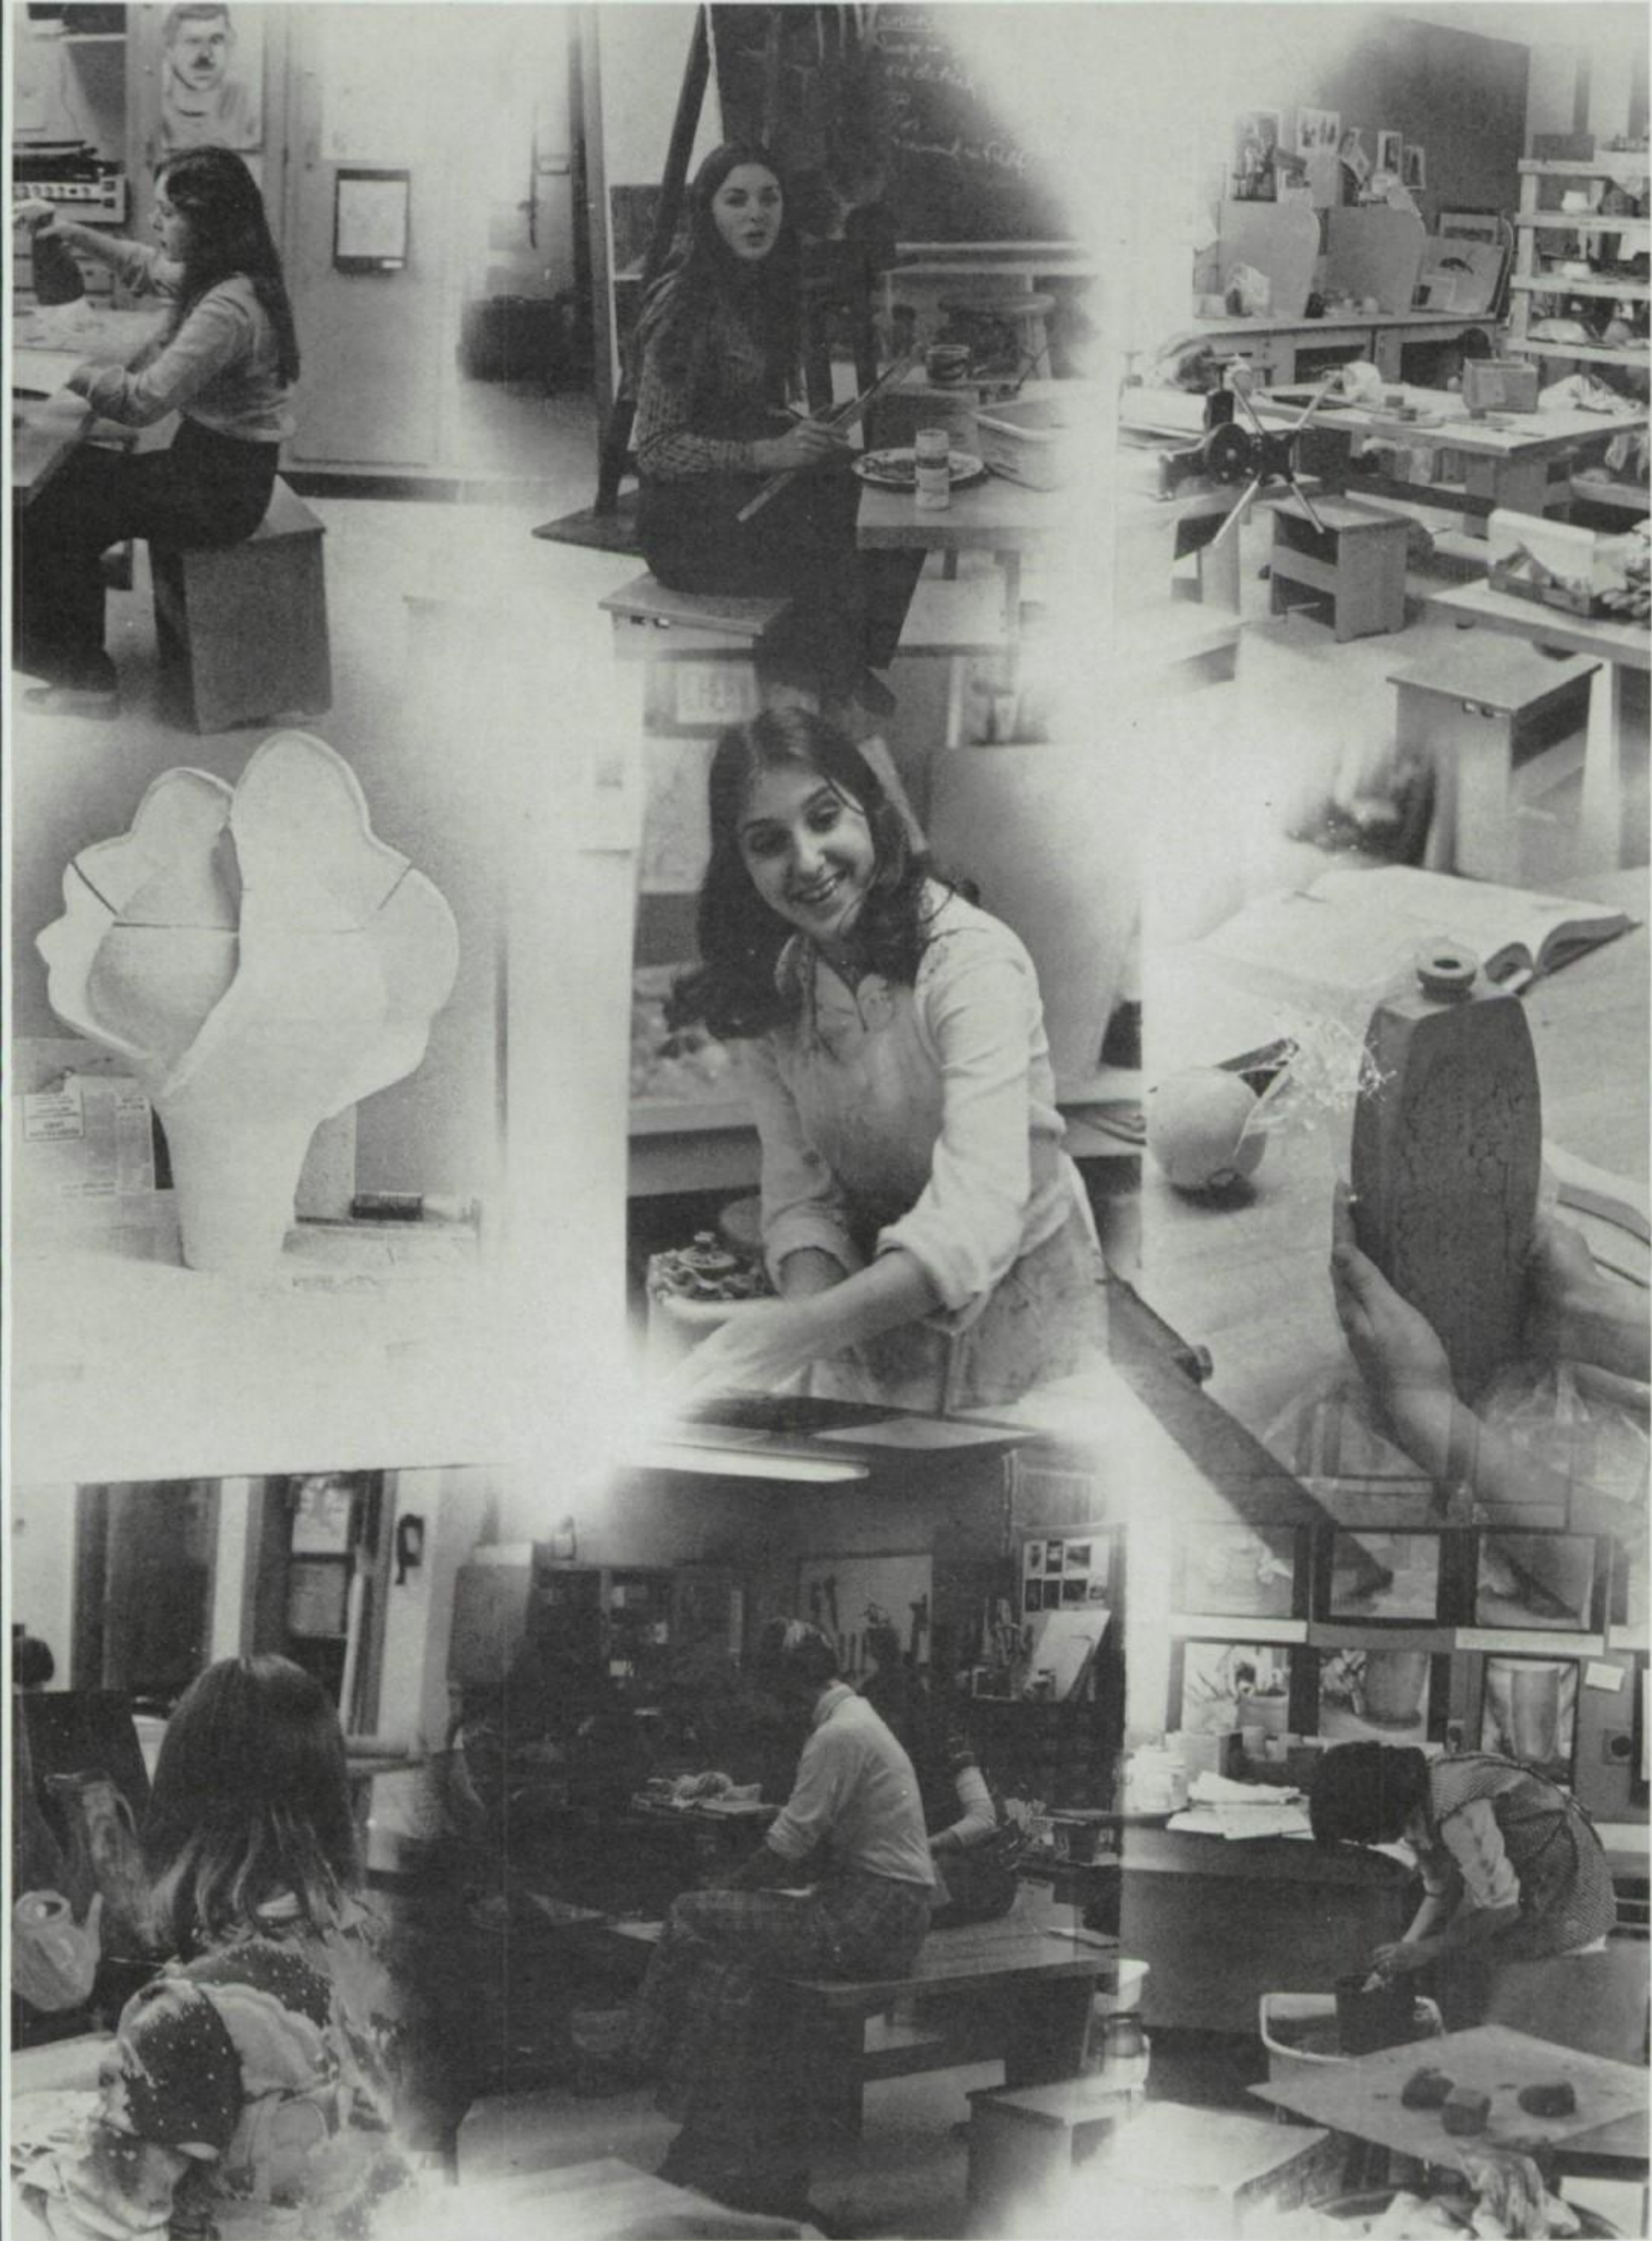

Janet Woods' wine set will be entered in the National Art Show in New York City.

February 11 was the day of the big art-trip to Syracuse to see the MONY Scholastic Art Show at the Everson Museum. Over 90 students of Ms. Rogers' art classes and Mr. Familos' Humanities class made the journey. Viewing the Syracuse Mall in the morning, lunching in downtown Syracuse, and stopping at the Everson in the afternoon made a full day. Artists Randy Worden and Michelle Martin, (two enthuseastic trippers), overcome by the "Fine Arts," almost became permanent Syracusans.

On an undisclosed date in the month of January, Fun and fantasy flared briefly, as the first initiation rites of the strictly unorganized, unofficial, underground, Art Club took place in the studio.

A black and white photograph of a forest path. The path is a light-colored, unpaved road that curves slightly to the right in the distance. It is flanked by numerous bare, leafless trees with intricate branch structures. The sky is a pale, uniform tone, suggesting an overcast day. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative, fitting the theme of the poem.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no steps had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two Roads diverged in a wood, and I Took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

ROBERT FROST
